WHO WE ARE

Connecting Indian farmland with the world's tables.

Sri Swastik International is an agricultural products exporter based in Anantapur, Andhra Pradesh, connecting Indian growing regions with buyers overseas — groundnut from our own Anantapur–Kurnool belt, red chilli from Guntur, and turmeric from the Erode–Salem belt.

We are a young company, but the people in it have spent years inside Indian agri supply chains — at the procurement desk, on the mill floor, and at the port. That experience is the reason shipments leave on schedule.

ABOUT RED CHILLI

Where it comes from

Guntur, in Andhra Pradesh, is Asia's largest red chilli-producing region. The belt's climate and soil produce chillies known for intense heat, deep red colour and a strong aroma — and it also runs Byadgi, prized for colour over raw heat.

Sri Swastik International supplies a complete range of chilli products from this belt — whole chillies across multiple heat grades, chilli powder, and chilli flakes — cleaned, sorted and processed to international standards.

HOW WE WORK

From first enquiry to bill of lading

- 01 Enquiry & spec

Tell us the product, grade, volume and destination port. We come back with a CIF or FOB quote, usually within two working days.
- 02 Samples & approval

We ship pre-shipment samples for your lab and sign-off. Nothing gets purchased in bulk until you've approved the sample.
- 03 Sourcing & QC

We procure against your approved spec, then grade, clean and test the lot — with photos and reports shared before packing.
- 04 Documentation

Phytosanitary, certificate of origin, fumigation, insurance and customs filing are prepared in parallel so nothing holds up the vessel.
- 05 Shipping & tracking

Container booked, stuffed and sealed under supervision. You get the BL, container number and live tracking until discharge.
